

NEWS RELEASE

WYOMING LEGISLATIVE SERVICE OFFICE

FOR RELEASE Immediately
CONTACT Ryan Frost, Associate Legislative Information Officer
TO REACH (307) 777-7881

WYOMING LEGISLATURE TO CONVENE FOR ONE-DAY VIRTUAL SESSION

CHEYENNE – The 66th Wyoming Legislature will convene at Noon on Jan. 12 for a one-day virtual session to fulfill the requirements of the Wyoming Constitution. Gov. Mark Gordon’s message will take place at 2 p.m. During the convening of the 2021 General Session, the Legislature will address all necessary business in accordance with the Wyoming Constitution, including but not limited to:

- Election of Legislative Leadership;
- Adopt rules for the 66th Legislature;
- Receive a message from Gov. Gordon.

A video livestream of the House and Senate proceedings will be available on the Legislature’s website at: www.wyoleg.gov. Gov. Gordon’s message will be livestreamed separately on Wyoming PBS’s YouTube channel at 2 p.m.

Members of the public are encouraged to view the proceedings online. The public may contact members of the Legislature directly using the contact information available on the Legislature’s website at: www.wyoleg.gov/Legislators.

Members of the 66th Legislature will be sworn in during the week of Jan. 4 and the morning of Jan. 12 prior to the Call to Order.

The Wyoming Legislature will resume the 2021 General Session at a later date. – End –

Note to media members only: Members of the media do not need to be credentialed for this one-day virtual session. You may view the proceedings from the third-floor galleries, adhering to all COVID-19 building protocols.